Projects-a-Plenty

The fall school semester is well underway all across the board. Rows of classes, piles of homework, and impending deadlines all plague many a student. However, despite the onslaught of grade school and college projects, the Once-ler fandom only continues to pour out new blogs, events, and alternate universes faster than you can say "biggering". One might even say that projects, both of the personal and group sort, have increased in number over the past couple of months. What with everything from ask blog engagements to several additional AUs cropping up, there is more happening in the fandom than ever.

In this issue, we cover a wide variety of things, including an update on the happenings in the Zombie AU, the return of an ask blog that we thought to have disappeared forever, and past and upcoming fandom birthdays. •

Did You Know?

The Lorax is Illumination Entertainment's third feature film.

Zombie AU - Camped Out

The intense, head-chopping action and mental wars have calmed somewhat, but it's not over yet for our band of survivors....

For at least a solid month, the Once-ler fandom zombie AU members have survived all manner of horrific, and often unsettling, events, from mental battles... to hoards of hungry and infected souls... to dreams disturbing enough to awaken the undead. Others, such as the late Bitter and Pun-ler, have not been so fortunate. And yet, through it all, the faithful band continues to trudge on....

A Ghost Town

Last week marked a rather curious (not to mention very familiar) discovery: the sudden unveiling of none other than an abandoned Camp Weehawken. Since our companions exist in an alternate universe, the camp was never so much as visited by them in their youth. However, it still carried a fair amount of surprises, including a once-member of the band, Creep-ler, one who was slowly, and unfortunately, descending into madness. He was found by Swag, Entre, and Ted in one of the lodges, and, after some hushed discussion, it was decided to put an end to the poor Once-ler. Somewhat surprisingly, it was not Swag or Entre who did the "honors" of ending Creep's life, but Ted Wiggins. So far, he hasn't seemed too much affected by the incident after the initial shock of committing such an act, but it's important to note that Ted is infected and will need an eye kept on him, and not just 'cause of his age.

Tender Discussions

In an environment such as the one that our gang is in, it's important to stick together and avoid any skirmishes that may sever the group. It is therefore comforting to see more of the members bonding as a family, including Ted and Swag. '72 even asked Entre to stay by him should he die. Let's hope they all continue to stick together. •

Wars and Weddings

All is fair in love and war, they say, although some may respectfully disagree. We've had quite a few things of note crop up within the last week, from two new AUs to a number of engagements between ask blogs and fandom members. With so much happening, it's almost kind of hard to keep track of it all!

War Against Once-lers

Over the past week, we've had not one, but two new AUs crop up. One of them is known around the fandom as the "War Against Once-lers" AU, which is set in a world where all Once-lers are, in a sense, "eliminated" and/or lorded over by O'Hare. There is, however, an underground resistance factor. Those who wish to join this AU must ask themselves but one question:

Which side should I be on?

More information can be located on the official blog:

Yet another AU on the rise is "Truffula Royale". Its blog can be found here:

Bells are Ringing

We've had a vast number of engagements and marriages among the community lately, so much so that we've had to devote a little section to it! Below is a list of most, if not all, of the recently engaged and married fandom couples:

- Bedtime Once-ler and Insomnia-ler (engaged)
- Ghost-ler and Moirin-McGillicuddy (engaged)
- Ask-artsy-oncie and Greed-ler of Ask-once-ler-and-greed-ler (engaged)
- Telepath-ler and King Greed-ler from askrainler (engaged)
- Ask-drunkonce-ler and ask-the-1ce-ler (engaged)
- Party-ler and Coffee-ler (married)
- Zodiac-ler and Sky-ler (in a relationship)
- Eat-ler and HippieMusicianOnce-ler (married for a week; magic anon)

Some of you may be rather surprised to see Ask-the-1ce-ler on the list, since he was on Whose side are you on?

the "Obituary" list last week. It was mentioned in that issue that he may return, however, and that's exactly what has happened; so welcome back "1ce", and congratulations to all of those in the fandom who are very recently getting hitched! •

~ Goings-on in the Fandom ~

We have a few "goings-on" of note that have taken place in the fandom lately, so here is a comprehensive list of them:

• Last week was "Fat Lorax Appreciation Week"

• This week, from Sunday through Saturday, is the somewhat controversial "Once-ler Mating Season". More information about it can be found via this link:

• The Once-ler Fandom Wiki is still adding members
